THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE L.NARASIMHA REDDY

W.P.No.231 of 2007

Date:05.02.2007

Between:

M.Srinivas.

.. PETITIONERS

AND

The State of Andhra Pradesh and others.

..RESPONDENTS

ORDER:

The petitioner seeks a writ of Mandamus in the form of a direction to the first respondent to appoint him as Assistant Government Pleader for the Court of the Junior Civil Judge, Ramannapet. The petitioner states that he possesses the requisite qualifications prescribed under G.O.Ms.No.187(Law), dated 06.12.2000, and despite the same, his case was not considered. It is also stated that the second respondent was appointed as Assistant Government Pleader for the said Court.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Law and Legislative Affairs.

Even according to the petitioner, the second respondent was appointed as Assistant Government Pleader. Unless the said appointment is challenged, there does not exist any occasion for consideration of the case of the petitioner.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in spite of the best efforts made by the petitioner, he could not get the copy of the appointment order of the second respondent. This Court is of the view that unless and until the appointment of the second respondent is challenged, the petitioner cannot seek the relief as prayed for in this writ petition.

Hence, the writ petition is dismissed, leaving it open to the petitioner to challenge the appointment of the second respondent, if it suffers from any illegality or infirmity. There shall be no order as to costs.
